Dear Ms. Shaw,

I received your recent letter, and appreciate you contacting me. I do not know that I have a good suggestion for you. There is no rule that allows a clerk to withhold filing a document in any case. You may wish to contact the Court Of Criminal Appeals and tell them the problem. It is not uncommon for them to issue orders directing the clerk to file documents, or the court of answer them.

I hope this gives you some help. Again I appreciate you contacting me, and wish you the best of luck.

Very truly yours,

Walter M. Reaves, Jr.
