RE: Cause No. 19058-AA

Dear Mrs. Shaw,

This letter is written in reply to your letter dated June 16, 2002. First, let me explain that I have been retired for over 12 years. I do sometimes hold court as a visiting Judge when a judge is absent or cannot hear a particular case. In other words, I do not have any authority to act in your case.

In your letter you stated that your case was appealed and affirmed. In my opinion a post-conviction remedy is difficult, especially without an attorney.

In your letter you made some mention of Judge Gerald Goodwin. You may or may not know that Judge Goodwin retired, and Judge Paul White is now judge of the 159th District Court.

In your letter you asked me if some of your requests were inappropriate. I really do not know because I am not familiar with your case. I just barely remember reading about it in the newspaper. However, I would say that anything that would actually help you with a post-conviction remedy would be proper.

I am sorry that I cannot be of more assistance.

Best regards,

David Walker
