

A He was doubled up. He kept holding his stomach, and he was doubled way up. He couldn't straighten out.

Q Upon being interrogated as to what was wrong with him, what was his response?

A [He told me that him and a couple of his friends were drinking in the alleyway, and one of his friends punched him in his stomach, took his money away and went down the street.]

Q Did he reveal to you the name of his alleged friends?

A No, I don't believe he did.

Q What was done with Mr. Miller then?

A I took him to Presbyterian Hospital. At the hospital, somebody in the emergency room knew him. They called his mother. His mother works in the hospital.

MR. FAGAN: Cross examine.

CROSS EXAMINATION

BY MR. METINKO:

Q When did you first see him?

A When?

Q At the time.

A When?