He's asking them, essentially, to speculate. Had the Defendant taken the stand and introduced testimony along those lines, which I could have cross examined on, that would be a different story.

THE COURT: Actually, the only evidence to even put his brother in the apartment is the statement by Esther Soto.

ATTORNEY KELLEY: Right, exactly. And nothing to corroborate that whatsoever.

ATTORNEY RENDINE: I agree that is where the evidence came from.

THE COURT: Is that the only evidence?

ATTORNEY RENDINE: Other than the medical examiner said that it was probably two people.

→ not in report

ATTORNEY KELLEY: She said possibly, isn't it possible that it could have been two people. Her response was yes, it could be possible.

THE COURT: I'm going to refuse that request and note an exception for the defendant. Anything else?
