FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 08/15/00

Rudy Liddell, Black male, [REDACTED], Saginaw, Michigan was contacted at his residence. Liddell, who was familiar with the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview provided the following:

Initially, Liddell advised that he was driving around the south side and approached the residence that he owned at 1250 Bundy Street. There, he saw a number of unknown subjects who were exiting his residence into the backyard. Liddell heard gunshots and stated that one individual was firing "warning shots" into the air.

"Liddell stated that he then called Rob Mason on his cellphone to tell him that his house was being shot up. Liddell did not know where Mason was when Liddell called him."

Liddell then advised that he was mistaken and that Rob Mason was actually with him at Eddie Ison's residence on Russell Street. From there, he drove Rob Mason to the Bundy Street address and came upon the home invasion. Liddell stated there were two distinct groups there, one in the backyard and the other on the side of the house. Liddell was not able to identify anyone. Liddell left Mason off at the residence. Liddell last saw Mason running. Liddell couldn't recall whether "Chan" was there at the time, but advised that he'd seen "Chan" at Mason's house earlier that day.

Liddell talked to Mason later that day or the following day. Mason told Liddell that he thought Thomas Wicker perpetrated the assault against him. Liddell further stated that Mason told him the FBI and the "City" (police) wanted Wicker off the streets, that the FBI told him say it was Wicker.

Liddell stated that Wicker had terrorized the whole city including innocent people. Liddell stated that the reason he had guns in his house was to protect himself from Wicker. Liddell said he would lay in the grass at his house in anticipation of an assault against him. Liddell stated that Wicker had assaulted Michael Pratt.
